

Reducing Rural Cancer Disparities Together Participation Expectations

Participants will be able to participate in either, or both 1. and 2. If participants choose to participate in only 2, but do not intend to deliver Cancer Clear & Simple, it will still be a requirement to send a coalition representative to a Cancer Clear & Simple Training in September so that coalition strategies are informed by the curriculum.

1. Expectations of participation in Cancer Clear & Simple

- Complete Cancer Clear & Simple training
 - Complete the following Pre-Work prior to in-person training
 - View County Cancer Profiles
 - Review Teaching Tools
 - Read the full CC&S curriculum
 - Walk through Activities and Activity Videos
 - Review Health Literacy Components
 - Attend in-person training
 - September 21 in Minocqua at The Waters
 - OR
 - September 28 in Wisconsin Dells at Chula Vista
- Identify at least one partner to participate in project as appropriate
- For any volunteer partners, complete necessary requirements
- Develop and implement a Cancer Clear & Simple delivery plan in your community
 - Commit to deliver Cancer Clear & Simple Series (3 modules) two times between September 2016 - May 1, 2017
 - A template delivery plan will be provided
- Participate in Reducing Rural Cancer Disparities Together evaluation

2. Expectations of Reducing Rural Cancer Disparities Together Coalition Coaching

- Complete Coalition Coaching application
- Attend or send a coalition representative to Cancer Clear & Simple Training
 - Complete training pre-work, see above
 - Attend in-person training *see dates above
- Participate in coaching site visits and regular coaching calls
- Participate in policy, systems and environmental change webinar
- Engage in an existing coalition that is ready to complete a policy, systems or environmental change plan related to chronic disease/cancer prevention
- Participate in Reducing Rural Cancer Disparities Together evaluation
- KEY DATES
 - August 1, 2016: Coalition Coaching Applications Due
 - Coaching delivery from October 2016 - September 2017